

we feel that the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's telephone privacy law protections. Since Indiana's privacy law has taken effect, we have recieved a lot less calls at supper time.